In a world that a lot of us would like to live , were three big , different and amazing realms: The Ice Nation , The Sun World and The Fine Camp.

From the start to the present , these three realms had lived in peace and respect. Never , but never nothing had changed... untill one day... when The King of The Ice Nation , who lived in a frozen castle , fully made of ice , decorated with different window where he noticed something really strange and unusual., a penguin, running afraid from a house to an another little ,small ice-birds singing the „Death song”... and an orange ,kind a red, big umbrella.

The King immediatly get his strict and protective behavior and went outside the castle s frozen walls. In front of his order. The king said „Go protect yourselves. Hide , run , but don t show up. Me and my guards will take care of this.”

Then , he turned to his soldiers , ready for war: The Sun World has invided their territory , starting The First war.

Since that day , the life had never been the same.

On a beautiful day I went with my family to a vacation in Antarctica.

We went to the airport and bought tickets for a giant plane. My sister was so excited. My little brother laughed because he was really happy to travel with the plane. It took six hours to wait all the other passengers to buy their tickets for the plane. When we arrived (my family) we landed near a castle. We went to the castle and on the castle was written "Penguins castle. Inside the castle we went on ice and we climbed up the slippery stairs. On top of the stairs we found a penguin with an umbrella in his hand. It took a minute and he jumped off the castle. He pulled out his umbrella and he started to fall off the castle really slowly and smooth. I said to him "Why did you do that?" and he said „Because this was only a training!". My family and I were slowly getting back to the plane . because we were really scared of the penguin thought .

We have never had this kind of vacation in our lives!

There once was a little girl who had a little brother. One day , they were sitting on a sofa , both covered by a fluffy blanket.

The boy wanted to hear a goodnight story so , his sister had to choose an interesting one. She chose „The ice realm” then she began to read.

„In a realm that a lot of us would like to live , was a giant castle fully made of ice. The king who lived in that castle was always grumpy and sad because he didn t have a wife.”

„Why? I bet he was tal land handsome!”the boy said.

„I don t really know...”she said and she began to read again.

„The king had a giant penguin army because there weren t that many people in the ice realm. He trained them to fight like warviors.

And... like I said before... the castle was fully made of ice... so the king couldn t use the stairs. There was always really windy and he used an umbrella to get out.”

„Wow... such an interesting way to use an umbralla...”the boy said when the girl finished the story his brother was sleeping. She kissed his forehead and turned off the lights.
